This document was produced under U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs Grant No. H326J050004. Dr. Marlene Simon-Burroughs served as the project officer. The views expressed herein do not necessarily represent the positions or policies of the Department Education. No official endorsement by the U.S. Department of Education of any product, commodity, service, or enterprise mentioned in this publication is intended or should be inferred. This product is public domain. Authorization to reproduce it in whole or in part is granted. While permission to reprint this publication is not necessary, the citation should be:

Published and distributed by:

National Secondary Transition Technical Assistance Center
University of North Carolina Charlotte
College of Education, Special Education & Child Development
9201 University City Boulevard
Charlotte, NC 28223
Phone: 704-687-8853
Fax: 704-687-2916
http://www.nsttac.org
http://www.uncc.edu

Printed in the United States of America
Table 2. What Transition Specialists Need to Know

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Competency</th>
<th>Resource(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Within the First Month</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Write IEPs that includes the required transition components</td>
<td>1a. For resources on Wrightslaw there is a website that offers parents, educators, advocates, and attorneys accurate, reliable information about special education law, education law, and advocacy for children with disabilities. http://www.wrightslaw.com/idea/law.htm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>▪ IDEA 2004</td>
<td>1b. For resources on IDEA 2004 there is a website that provides a &quot;one-stop shop&quot; for resources related to IDEA and its implementing regulations. http://idea.ed.gov/</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>▪ Beginning not later than the first IEP to be in effect when the child is 16, and updated annually thereafter:</td>
<td>1c. For resources on Indicator 13 visit the NSTTACE Website at: http://www.nsttac.org/products_and_resources/personel_development_ideas.aspx</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>▪ appropriate measurable postsecondary goals based upon age</td>
<td>1d. Information on administrative skills to manage time and complete necessary paperwork can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>▪ appropriate transition assessments related to training, education, employment, and where appropriate independent living skills</td>
<td>1e. Resources (e.g., books, links, newsletters, presentations, publications, and reports) on special education policy can be located on the Beach Center’s website at: http://www.beachcenter.org/disability_policy/idea.aspx</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>▪ the transition services (including courses of</td>
<td>1f. Information on some of the most influential disability and education laws can be located on National Dissemination Center for Children with Disabilities’ website at: http://nichcy.org/laws</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
study) needed to assist the child in reaching those goals

- beginning not later than 1 year before the child reaches the age of majority under state law, a statement that the child has been informed of the child’s rights under this title, if any, that will transfer to the child on reaching the age of majority

Age 16 (Indicator 13)

- Current Measurement Language for Indicator 13 “Percent of youth with IEPs aged 16 and above with an IEP that includes appropriate measurable postsecondary goals that are annually updated and based upon an age appropriate transition assessment, transition services, including courses of study, that will reasonably enable the student to meet those postsecondary goals, and annual IEP goals related to the student’s transition services needs. There also must be evidence that the student was invited to the IEP Team meeting where transition services are to be discussed and evidence that, if appropriate, a representative of any participating agency was invited to the IEP Team meeting with the prior consent of the parent or student who has reached the age of majority.” (20 U.S.C. 1416(a)(3)(B))

2. Have knowledge of transition-related legislation in fields of special and vocational education, rehabilitation, labor, and civil rights.

2a. For information on transition legislation:
See Chapter 2: Transition Legislation And Models (pp.29-53).

2b. For information on transition legislation and policy:
3. Administer formal and informal transition assessment (i.e., self-determination, academic, career and vocational, independent living)

3a. For an Age Appropriate Transition Assessment Toolkit
NSTTAC’s Website: http://www.nsttac.org/content/age-appropriate-transition-assessment-toolkit

3b. For information on when to conduct transition assessment:
For a Suggested Timeline for Transition Assessment

3c. For information about transition assessment resources:
This link includes sources of transition assessment information, which includes podcast, websites, and presentations http://www.nsttac.org/content/age-appropriate-transition-assessment-toolkit#other_resources

3d. For information about different types of transition assessments: Transition Coalition - this link provides reviews of various published transition assessments
http://transitioncoalition.org/transition/assessment_review/all.php

3e. Information on assessments and individualized planning can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-03

4. Use interest preferences of the individual with exceptional needs to develop post-school goals and educational objectives

4a. For information about transition planning: See Chapter 5: Transition Assessment (pp. 103-133)

4b. For information about transition assessments: See Chapter 8: Transition Assessment: Emerging

4e. Information on assessments and individualized planning can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-03

4f. Information on career interests, career exploration, work experience, and postsecondary options can be located on the Career One Stop’s website at: http://www.careeronestop.org/studentsandcareeradvisors/studentsandcareeradvisors.aspx

5. Evaluate students’ educational program with respect to measurable post-school goals and alignment of those goals with instructional activities.

5a. Indicator 13 Training Materials
http://nsttac.appstate.edu/content/evaluation-toolkit-table-contents

Within 3-6 Months

1. Identify job seeking and retention skills identified by employers as essential for successful employment

1a. For more information on successful employment: Pathway to College and Career Readiness http://www.careerclusters.org/resources/web/ks.php

1b. What do most employers really want?
http://www.quintcareers.com/job_skills_values.html

2. Participate with a multi-disciplinary team

3. Identify agencies outside of the education system in the community that are serving individuals with disabilities (e.g., disability services in college, developmental disability councils, Easter Seals, public transportation, mental health agency)

3a. TransCen, Inc. is a non-profit 501(c) 3 organization dedicated to improving educational and employment outcomes for people with disabilities.

3b. Information on interagency collaboration can be found on page 26 in The Community Transition Program: Experiences Starting a Community-Based Program for Students Aged 18-21 manual on the Transition Coalition’s website located at:

3c. Information on family and community involvement can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-04

4. Create opportunities for collaboration with other practitioners in the education system that are serving students with disabilities (e.g., curriculum coordinator, dropout prevention coach, career technical education coordinator)

4a. Information about transitions for students with disabilities. The Iris Center’s Website

4b. Information about collaborating with families The Iris Center’s Website

4c. Resources for working with Spanish speaking families
http://www.tatira.com/TatiraPPal.htm

5. Provide information to families about transition-related education and

5a. Parent and Family Involvement Annotated Bibliography http://nsttac.appstate.edu/content/parent-and-family-involvement-annotated-bibliography-prepared-nsttac-dawn-rowe services, and post-school options in specific outcome areas.

5d. Information on family and community involvement can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-04

5e. Resources to work with families can be obtained from the Beach Center Family Research’s toolkit at: http://www.beachcenter.org/families/family_research_toolkit.aspx

6. Systematically identify family service needs related to transition outcomes and assist families to connect with support networks.

6c. PACER's Technical Assistance on Transition and the Rehabilitation Act (TATRA) Project. Focuses on helping families prepare youth with disabilities for employment and independent living. Projects provide information and training on transition planning, the adult service system, and strategies that prepare youth for successful employment, postsecondary education, and independent living outcomes. http://www.pacer.org/tatra/

6d. Information on family and community involvement can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-04

6e. Resources to work with families can be obtained from the Beach Center Family Research’s toolkit at: http://www.beachcenter.org/families/family_research_toolkit.aspx

6f. Information on health needs for youth with disabilities can be found on the Healthy and Ready to Work’s website at: http://web.syntiro.org/hrtw//tools/check_transition.html
Within 1 Year

1. Identify the roles of federal, state, provincial, and local legislation and implications for providing transition services at the local levels

2. Interpret results of transition assessment for individuals, families and professionals

   2a. Resource for Completing a Summary of Performance can be found located on the NSTTAC website: http://nsttac.appstate.edu/content/completing-summary-performance-form

   2b. For information on Self-directed IEP

3. Utilize methods for providing work-based instruction by setting up job site in the community

   3a. For information on community-based training: NSTTAC State Transition Resources Search http://nsttac.appstate.edu/content/transition-map

4. Provide community-based education for individuals with exceptional learning needs

   Discusses the disadvantages of community based instruction during the school day. Argues that instruction in the community separates students physically and socially isolates them from their peers. Recommends community involvement should occur when other students are typically in the community not during the school day.
5. Provide career education and exploration

Describes the Community Transition Team model including active stakeholder participation, change viewed as a process, and support by a larger structure.

5b. Information on career exploration can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-06

5c. Information on career exploration can be found on the Bureau of Labor’s website at: http://www.bls.gov/k12/

5d. Information on career interests, career exploration, work experience, and postsecondary options can be located on the Career One Stop’s website at: http://www.careeronestop.org/studentsandcareeradvisors/studentsandcareeradvisors.aspx

6. Facilitate access into community services

6a. PACER’s Technical Assistance on Transition and the Rehabilitation Act (TATRA) Project. Focuses on helping families prepare youth with disabilities for employment and independent living. Projects provide information and training on transition planning, the adult service system, and strategies that prepare youth for successful employment, postsecondary education, and independent living outcomes. http://www.pacer.org/tatra/

6b. Information on connecting students and families with community resources can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-08

6c. Resources (e.g., books, links, newsletters, presentations, publications, and reports) on community participation can be located on the Beach Center’s website at: http://www.beachcenter.org/families/participating_in_the_community.aspx

7. Utilize skills to seek strategies for resolving differences that may arise in the implementation of interagency agreements or the provision of transition services for individuals with exceptional learning needs.

8. Provide transition-focused technical assistance and professional development in collaboration with family members for educators, community agency personnel, and other relevant transition stakeholders.

9. Develop coordinated interagency strategies to collect, share, and use student assessment data, with appropriate input and authorization of students and families.

secondary students with disabilities. Columbus, OH: Merrill Education.

9b. Information on trainings to address best-practices, family involvement and self-determination can be found on the Transition Coalition’s website at: http://www.transitioncoalition.org/transition/module_home.php.

9e. Information on family and community involvement can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-04

10. Assess and use student support systems to facilitate the post-school transition of individuals with exceptional learning needs.

11. Identify future post-school service needs using transition planning documents in conjunction with relevant agencies

12. Match skills and interest of the student to skills and demands required by postsecondary education settings, vocational employment settings, community residential situation, and other community participation options

12c. PACER's Technical Assistance on Transition and the Rehabilitation Act (TATRA) Project. Focuses on helping families prepare youth with disabilities for employment and independent living. Projects provide information and training on transition planning, the adult service system, and strategies that prepare youth for successful employment, postsecondary education, and independent living outcomes.

   http://www.pacer.org/tatra/

12d. Information on career exploration can be found on the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth’s website at: http://www.ncwd-youth.info/ksa/competency-06

13. Have knowledge of the Taxonomy for Transition Programming or other widely accepted frameworks for implementing secondary transition and education services

14. Have knowledge of standard curriculum and education methods and models

Provides information regarding transition education specifically focused for teachers and other related professionals. Information is cross-categorical and includes topics such as legislation, specific transition activities, and problem-solving strategies.

15. Have knowledge of career and vocational education methods, models, and curricula

Provides information regarding transition education specifically focused for teachers and other related professionals. Information is cross-categorical and includes topics such as legislation, specific transition activities, and problem-solving strategies.

15c. For information on transition education materials visit the Zarrow Center for Learning Enrichment at:
http://www.ou.edu/content/education/centers-and-partnerships/zarrow/transition-education-materials.html

16. Have knowledge of instruction for:
- teaching job seeking skills
- matching students’ skills to jobs
- identifying job skills
- identifying vocational preferences
- identifying social skills

Provides recommendations based on the Life Centered Career Education program for special education teachers for students with both career and community college post-school outcomes. Includes teaching strategies that focus on daily living, personal/social, and occupational skills.

16b. For information on transition education materials visit the Zarrow Center for Learning Enrichment at:
http://www.ou.edu/content/education/centers-and-partnerships/zarrow/transition-education-materials.html

16c. For information on self-determination education materials visit the Zarrow Center for Learning Enrichment at:
http://www.ou.edu/content/education/centers-and-partnerships/zarrow/self-determination-education-materials.html